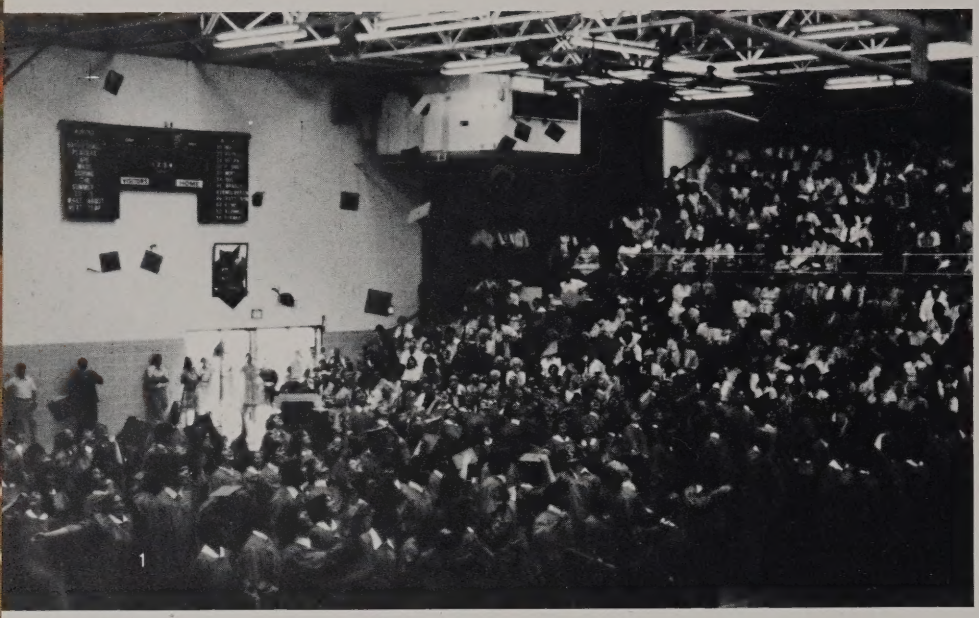
CAPS OFF TO THE SENIORS!



Graduation

Graduation time is here,
A busy day this time of year.
Remembering the days of yesterdays,
As we each part and go our ways.

Remembering all the times we had,
Some were good and some were bad.
Some will be worth remembering,
While others are worth Forgetting.

But all in all school was okay,
As we approach the big day.
Tomorrow as we look back and say,
"Gee was it only yesterday!"

Angela L. Loe
Class of '81

Graduation

To: The Class of "81"

Faces of old, Faces of new,
People we Know, and people we Knew.
Growing together, then drifting apart,
Always an ending, and now a new start.
At graduation we all grow nearer,
And all of our friends seem so much dearer.
And as all of us say our final "Good-bye",
One last embrace and one more cry.
A "Keep in touch" and a "Promise I will",
A "Remember when" but better still.
A place in my heart you'll always stay,
This is what's said as we go our own way!

— Deanne Gerardot

1. The Class of 1981 begins a new tradition of tossing the caps. 2. Darcy Myers, class president and salutetorian, gives her speech. 3. The class moto by Linda Ousley. 4. We Are One But Go Forth As Individuals

by Linda Ousley

1981 GRADS

The 1981 Seniors find the end of the year upon them. 1. We find the W's lined up and ready to go, but what is Steve Tackitt doing in the W's? 2. Are you ready for Vincinnes, Laura? 3. Sharon Smith and Jill Wilkinson find themselves caught in the restroom mass. 4. We're proud of you too, Donna Massey and Tim Lude. 5. Mrs. Boley finds herself busy helping distressed Senior Raeann Wood Rice. 6. Just posing says Sheryl Ball, Lora Elder, Shelly Williamson, Angie Hollars, and Elaine Westrick. 7. Some Seniors take graduation more seriously than others. Penny Johnston isn't one of 'em, it seems. 8. Vicki Moog and Joni Kurtz are not only good friends, but both are very successful artists. 9. Well, Diane, it looks like you're ready to go. 10. The '82 class will have to practice to be as rowdy as Karra, Kent, Christy, and Darcy. 11. We're going to miss you Lolly Duggins and Lisa Glick. Good Luck, Seniors, with your futures. The Yearbook Staff.
